Intensive Course “Nursing Ethics”

(Leuven, Belgium, 7-9 December 2011)

The Centre for Biomedical Ethics and Law (of Leuven University) is organising an intensive course on Nursing Ethics. The objective of the course is to foster exchanges on foundational and methodological approaches as well as on contemporary and educational issues in nursing ethics. This course works from an interdisciplinary (philosophical, theological, nursing, clinical-ethical) perspective. The intensive course Nursing Ethics is part of the Erasmus Mundus Master of Bioethics programme.

During the course, national and international experts will give presentations on various topics in the domain of nursing ethics. There will be time for intensive discussions. The language of instruction will be English. The course is of interest to participants from diverse professional backgrounds, such as nursing, medicine, philosophy and theology, health care administration, and PhD students undertaking courses of study in these areas.
