Text

Text Formatting
Manuscripts should be submitted in Word.
• Use a normal, plain font (e.g., 10.5-point Times Roman) for text.
• Use the automatic page numbering function to number the pages.
• Do not use field functions.
• Use tab stops or other commands for indents, not the space bar.
• Use the table function in word, not spreadsheets, to make tables.
• Use MathType for equations.
• Save your file in docx format (Word 2007) or doc format (older Word versions).

Footnotes
• Footnotes to the text are numbered consecutively; those to tables should be indicated by superimposed Arabic numbers (or asterisks for significance values and other statistical data). Footnotes to the title or the authors of the article are not given reference symbols.
• Affiliation of author, city, zip code and country should be placed as footnotes.
• Always use footnotes instead of endnotes.

References
Reference citations in the text should be identified by numbers in square brackets. Some examples:
1. Negotiation research spans many disciplines [3].
2. This result was later contradicted by Becker and Seligman [5].
3. This effect has been widely studied [1-3, 7].

Reference list
The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. Personal communications and unpublished works should only be mentioned in the text. Do not use footnotes or endnotes as a substitute for a reference list. The entries in the list should be numbered consecutively. References should be listed at the end of each paper and numbered in the order cited to in the text, not alphabetically. Journal references should be arranged thus:
• Journal article
[number] family names and initials of all authors. Title of the paper [J]. full journal title of the journal, year of publication, number of the volume(number of the issue): number of the first pages - number of the last pages.
• Book
[number] family names and initials of all authors. Title of the book [M].City, country: publishing house, year of publication.
• Dissertation
• Conference
[number] family names and initials of all authors. Title of the paper [C]. full conference title, City, country, year of conference.
Tables
- All tables are to be numbered using Arabic numerals.
- Tables should always be cited in text in consecutive numerical order. Name your table with "Table" and the figure number, e.g., Table 1 Title(caption).
- For each table, please supply a table caption (title) explaining the components of the table.
- Identify any previously published material by giving the original source in the form of a reference at the end of the table caption.
- Footnotes to tables should be indicated by superscript Arabic numerals (or asterisks for significance values and other statistical data) and included beneath the table body.

Figures
- Each figure should have a concise caption describing accurately what the figure depicts.
- Figure captions begin with the term Fig., followed by the figure number, e.g., Fig.1 Title(caption).
- All figures are to be numbered using Arabic numerals.
- Figures should always be cited in text in consecutive numerical order.

Integrity of research and reporting
Ethical standards
Manuscripts submitted for publication must contain a statement to the effect that all human and animal studies have been approved by the appropriate ethics committee and have therefore been performed in accordance with the ethical standards laid down in the 1964 Declaration of Helsinki and its later amendments.
It should also be stated clearly in the text that all persons gave their informed consent prior to their inclusion in the study. Details that might disclose the identity of the subjects under study should be omitted.
These statements should be added in a separate section before the reference list. If these statements are not applicable, authors should state: The manuscript does not contain clinical studies or patient data.
The editors reserve the right to reject manuscripts that do not comply with the above-mentioned requirements. The author will be held responsible for false statements or failure to fulfill the above-mentioned requirements
Conflict of interest
Authors must indicate whether or not they have a financial relationship with the organization that sponsored the research. They should also state that they have full control of all primary data and that they agree to allow the journal to review their data if requested.
Therefore the manuscript must be accompanied by the “Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form”. To download this form, please follow the hyperlink on the right.

After Acceptance
Upon acceptance of your article you will receive a link to the special Author Query Application at Springer’s web page where you can sign the Copyright Transfer Statement online. The final revised manuscripts for publication should be submitted to Editorial Board of Journal of Hydrodynamics,
Research Data Policy

The journal encourages authors, where possible and applicable, to deposit data that support the findings of their research in a public repository. Authors and editors who do not have a preferred repository should consult Springer Nature’s list of repositories and research data policy.

- List of Repositories
- Research Data Policy

General repositories - for all types of research data - such as figshare and Dryad may also be used.

Datasets that are assigned digital object identifiers (DOIs) by a data repository may be cited in the reference list. Data citations should include the minimum information recommended by DataCite: authors, title, publisher (repository name), identifier.

- DataCite

Springer Nature provides a research data policy support service for authors and editors, which can be contacted at researchdata@springernature.com.

This service provides advice on research data policy compliance and on finding research data repositories. It is independent of journal, book and conference proceedings editorial offices and does not advise on specific manuscripts.
