Contents

The Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act
After 10 Years—Some Proposals for Reform .......................... 1
Michael Crew and Timothy Brennan

Lessons from the Postal Sector to Telecommunications and Vice Versa .............................................................. 17
Pier Luigi Parcu and Virginia Silvestri

E-Substitution and the Demand for Business Mail in the UK: Trends and Prospects ............................................................... 35
Frank Rodriguez, Soterios Soteri and Stefan Tobias

An Examination of the Links Between Postal Price Constraints,
Efficiency, Competition and Public Welfare ....................... 51
Philippe De Donder, Frank Rodriguez and Soterios Soteri

The Personalization and Volume Trade-Off: A Future Without Saturation Mail? ............................................................... 67
Michael D. Bradley and Adam C. Houck

An Economic Perspective on Terminal Dues ......................... 79
Henrik Ballebye Okholm, Bruno Basalisco, Jimmy Gårdebrink
and Anna Møller Boivie

A Case Study of Density of Retail Outlets in Portugal: Regulation and Politics in Postal Markets ........................................... 97
João Confraria, Vítor Miguel Ribeiro, Agostinho Franco and Frederico Pereira

Minimum Wages in the Award of Public Contracts After RegioPost . . . 115
Alessandra Fratini

Protecting Consumers Using Postal and E-Commerce Delivery
Services in Competitive European Markets ............................. 127
John Hearn
E-Commerce in Europe: Parcel Delivery Prices in a Digital Single Market ..................................................... 139
J. Scott Marcus and Georgios Petropoulos

U.S. Postal Markets and Delivery Liberalization: A Simulation Approach ................................................... 161
Margaret M. Cigno and Edward S. Pearsall

Claire Borsenberger

Blockchain Technology and Cryptocurrencies: Opportunities for Postal Financial Services ................................. 205
Christian Jaag and Christian Bach

Digital Identities: A Good Move for Postal Operators ........................................ 223
Claire Borsenberger, Olaf Klargaard and Philippe Régnard

The Digital Future of the Printed Publishing Material and the Impact on the Postal Sector ............................. 233
Simona Romito and Stefano Gori

Econometric Benchmarking of Delivery and Processing Costs in the UK Postal Sector ...................................... 243
Helen Ferguson, Katie Curry and Nick Convery

Changes to the Universal Service: Influencing Factors, Impacts and Regulatory Implications ............................. 257
Steven Cape and Philip Groves

Mail Composition and Recipients’ Reaction to Direct Mail ........................................ 271
Thomas Geissmann, Christian Jaag, Martin Maegli and Urs Trinkner

The Total Price of Mail: A Consumer Perspective ........................................ 283
Benjamin Gough, Kirk Kaneer and Margaret M. Cigno

The Challenge of Designing Access to the Postal Network: An Economics Perspective ................................. 301
Henrik Ballebye Okholm, Bruno Basalisco, Julia Wahl and Mindaugas Cerpickis

Should the Postal Sector Change Its Social Model to Succeed in Its Transformation? ........................................ 321
Dominique Bailly and Margaux Meidinger

Is the Universal Postal Union Still Relevant? ........................................ 333
Emmanuel Vivet and Roland Leray
The Changing Postal and Delivery Sector
Towards A Renaissance
Crew, M.; Parcu, P.L.; Brennan, T. (Eds.)
2017, XII, 344 p. 46 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-46045-1