1 Introduction
   Marcos Silva

2 Minima Visibilia, Single-Colored Patches, Points: Logical Analysis and its Visual Instances in Wittgenstein’s Early Notebooks
   Ludovic Soutif

3 Incompatible Colours and the Development of Wittgenstein’s Philosophy
   Andrew Lugg

4 Tractatus Objects and the Logic of Color Incompatibility
   Dale Jacquette

5 What Does a Phenomenological Language Do? (Revisiting Some Remarks on Logical Form in Its Context)
   Mauro L. Engelmann
Contents

6 Logic and Phenomenology: Wittgenstein/Ramsey/Schlick in Colour-Exclusion
   Mihai Ometiță
   127

7 The “Color Problem”: Infinity and the Development of Wittgenstein’s Thinking
   Anderson Luis Nakano
   159

8 Wittgenstein on Contradiction and Contrariety: Four Turning Points in the Development of his Philosophy of Logic
   Marcos Silva
   185

9 The Grammar of Colours Advanced in Wittgenstein’s Middle Period
   Axel A. Barceló and Salma Saab
   215

10 Using Colors: Phenomenology vs. Phenomenological Problems
    James Thompson
    245

11 Wittgenstein’s Phenomenology
    João Vergilio G. Cuter
    271

12 Wittgenstein on Colour and the Formation of Concepts
    Frederik A. Gierlinger
    299

13 Colours, Phenomenology and Certainty: Wittgenstein’s Remarks on Colours in the Context of His Later Philosophy
    Marcelo Carvalho
    317
14 The Harmony of Colour Concepts: Bridging the Early and the Late Wittgenstein

Ingolf Max

Name Index

Subject Index
Colours in the development of Wittgenstein's Philosophy
Silva, M. (Ed.)
2017, XV, 380 p. 5 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-56918-5