

Contents

1 Introduction	1
1.1 General	1
1.2 Why This Topic?	1
1.2.1 Law Schools Today	1
1.2.2 Modernizing Legal Education	2
1.2.3 Digital Age	3
1.2.4 Legal Education and Technology	4
1.3 Goals	4
1.4 Methodology	5
1.5 Structure	6
2 Defining Flipped Classrooms	9
2.1 General	9
2.2 Literature Review	9
2.2.1 Flipped Classrooms	9
2.2.2 Blended Learning and Hybrid Learning	10
2.2.3 Podcasting	12
2.3 Definition Adopted for This Book	13
3 The Pedagogical Feasibility of Flipped Classrooms	15
3.1 General	15
3.2 Arguments Contra Traditional Lectures	16
3.2.1 General	16
3.2.2 Is Traditional Lecture an Effective Law Teaching Method?	16
3.2.3 Current Practice in the U.K., Canada and Australia	18
3.2.4 Defending Lectures	20
3.2.5 The SAMR Model	22
3.3 Arguments Pro Flipped Classrooms	23
3.3.1 Improved Learning Experience	23
3.3.2 Flexible Learning	25
3.3.3 IT Literacy	26

3.3.4	Improved Learning Outcomes	26
3.3.5	Students' Feedback	28
3.3.6	Learning Theories	30
3.3.7	Learning Needs	34
3.3.8	Bloom's Taxonomy	35
3.3.9	The Debate Regarding the Use of Technology.	35
3.3.10	Issues with 'Flipping'?	37
3.4	Socratic Method Versus Flipped Classrooms	38
3.4.1	General.	38
3.4.2	What Is the Socratic Method?	38
3.4.3	How Does the Socratic Method Work?.	39
3.4.4	Active Learning Principle	40
3.4.5	Arguments Contra the Socratic Method	41
3.4.6	Students' Feedback	45
3.4.7	Defending the Socratic Method	46
3.4.8	Variations of the Socratic Method	47
3.4.9	Comparing the Socratic Method and the Flipped Classroom Concept	47
3.5	Video Flipping Versus Audio Flipping	49
3.5.1	General.	49
3.5.2	Arguments in Favor of the Video Approach	49
3.5.3	Arguments in Favor of the Audio Approach	50
3.5.4	Conclusions	52
3.6	Observations, Potential Problems and Open Questions	53
3.6.1	General.	53
3.6.2	Limited Data.	53
3.6.3	The Flip Sides of Flipped Classrooms	54
3.6.4	Resistance.	55
3.6.5	Students' Time Constraints	59
3.6.6	Law as an Unsuitable Subject for Multiple-Use Online Modules?	59
3.6.7	Flipped Classrooms and Teacher Personality	60
3.6.8	Flipped Classrooms to Deepen Particular Subject Areas	60
3.6.9	Searching for the One and Only Teaching Mode: Mission Impossible?.	60
4	How to Develop Flipped Classrooms?	63
4.1	General	63
4.2	Planning.	63
4.3	Production	66
4.3.1	General.	66
4.3.2	White Board Approach.	67
4.3.3	Screen Capture Approach	68

- 4.3.4 Audio-Only Format 68
- 4.3.5 Students’ Preference. 69
- 4.4 Distribution. 70
- 4.5 Technical Challenges 71
- 5 Costs. 73
 - 5.1 General 73
 - 5.2 Costs to Develop Flipped Classrooms. 73
 - 5.3 Can Technologies Save Cost? 75
 - 5.4 Open Educational Resources (OERs) 76
- 6 Case Study: Flipped Classrooms for ‘The Law of International Business Transactions II’ 81
 - 6.1 General 81
 - 6.2 The LIBT II Course 82
 - 6.2.1 Course Contents 82
 - 6.2.2 Delivery Mode 83
 - 6.2.3 Hong Kong Specifics 84
 - 6.2.4 Pedagogical Underpinning. 85
 - 6.3 Why ‘Flipping’ LIBT II Lecture Modules? 86
 - 6.4 Developing ‘Flipped’ LIBT II Classrooms 87
 - 6.4.1 Pilot Scheme. 87
 - 6.4.2 Selecting Sessions for ‘Flipping’ 87
 - 6.4.3 ‘White Board Approach’, ‘Screen Capture Approach’, ‘Audio-Only Format’ or OERs? 88
 - 6.4.4 In Particular: Echo 360. 89
 - 6.4.5 In Particular: Searching for LIBT II Compatible OERs 90
 - 6.4.6 Distribution. 93
 - 6.4.7 The Recording Process. 95
 - 6.4.8 Preparing for the LIBT II for the Flipped Classroom Experience 95
 - 6.5 Evaluation 96
 - 6.5.1 Developing an Evaluation Framework 96
 - 6.5.2 Evaluating the LIBT II Pilot Scheme 99
 - 6.5.3 Conclusions 106
- 7 Final Remarks. 109
- Erratum to: Flipped Classrooms for Legal Education. E1
- References 131

<http://www.springer.com/978-981-10-0478-0>

Flipped Classrooms for Legal Education

Wolff, L.-C.; Chan, J.

2016, IX, 138 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-981-10-0478-0