

Waiver of extra page charge from issue number 3, volume 30.

Authors were previously charged for articles with printed pages exceeding 4 pages. ANM is pleased to inform authors that the extra page charge for articles published in ANM from issue number 3, volume 30 will be waived. This was made possible by the vigorous efforts undertaken to reduce publishing costs. Authors are encouraged to submit their manuscripts to ANM free of charge.

Instructions regarding the length of articles have now been prepared. Please refer to the revised instructions for authors for the preparation of manuscripts. In the review process, authors may be asked to shorten their manuscripts by the editors, who would appreciate the understanding of this new policy by all authors.
