COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

The undersigned, with the consent of all authors, hereby transfers, to the extent that there is copyright to be transferred, the exclusive copyright interest in the above cited manuscript, including the printed version in any format (subsequently referred to as the "work"), to the Polymer Society of Korea subject to the following (Note: if the manuscript is not accepted by the Polymer Society of Korea or if it is withdrawn prior to acceptance by the Polymer Society of Korea, this transfer will be null and void and the form will be returned):

A. The undersigned author and all coauthors retain the write to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, present orally, or distribute the work provided that all such use is for the personal noncommercial benefit of the author(s) and is consistent with any prior contractual agreement between the undersigned and/or coauthors and their employer(s).

B. In all instances where work is prepared as a "work made for hire" for an employer, the employer(s) of the author(s) retain(s) the right to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, publish, reprint, reproduce, and distribute the work provided that all such use is for the promotion of its business enterprise and does not imply the endorsement of the Polymer Society of Korea.

C. Whenever the Polymer Society of Korea is approached by third parties for individual permission to use, reprint, or republish specified articles (except for classroom use, library reserve, or to reprint in a collective work) the undersigned author's or employer's permission will also be required.

D. No proprietary right other than copyright is claimed by the Polymer Society of Korea.

E. For works prepared under Korean Government contract or by employees of a foreign government or its instrumentalities, the Polymer Society of Korea recognizes that government's prior nonexclusive, royalty-free license to publish, translate, reproduce, use, or dispose of the published form of the work, or allow others to do so for noncommercial government purposes.
