

Call for 2013 Nominations Seventh Vasil A. Popov Prize

Deadline: November 15, 2012

The Vasil A. Popov Prize honors the memory of the Bulgarian analyst Vasil A. Popov (1942-1990), best known for his contributions to Approximation theory. The Seventh Vasil A. Popov Prize will be awarded at the Fourteenth International Conference in Approximation Theory, to be held in April of 2013 in San Antonio, Texas.

The Prize, which consists of an engraved marble trophy and a cash award, is awarded every third year for outstanding research contributions in fields related to Vasil Popov's work. Eligibility for this Prize is restricted to young mathematicians (defined as a person who has received their PhD degree within the past six years) who did not have their terminal degree on June 1, 2006. The winner of the Prize will be asked to deliver a plenary lecture at the Texas Conference.

The First Prize in 1995 was awarded to Albert Cohen (Paris VI), the Second Prize in 1998 to Arno Kuijlaars (KU Leuven), the Third Prize in 2001 to Emmanuel Candes (Caltech), the Fourth Prize in 2004 to Serguei Denisov (Wisconsin-Madison), the Fifth Prize in 2007 to Mauro Maggioni (Duke), and the Sixth Prize in 2010 to Joel A. Tropp (Caltech).

The Selection Committee for the Seventh Vasil A. Popov Prize consists of Albert Cohen (Paris VI), Wolfgang Dahmen (RWTH-Aachen), Arno Kuijlaars (KU Leuven), Paul Nevai (The Ohio State University), Allan Pinkus (Technion-Haifa), Pencho Petrushev (University of South Carolina), and Edward Saff (Vanderbilt University).

Letters of nomination should include a brief description of the research related to the nomination and a vita of the nominee. Other supporting material may also be submitted.

All nominations must be received no later than November 15, 2012. Nominations for the award and any supporting materials should be sent electronically or as hardcopies to:
