Instructions for Authors

Criminal Law Forum

Manuscript Submission

Submission of a manuscript implies: that the work described has not been published before; that it is not under consideration for publication anywhere else; that its publication has been approved by all co-authors, if any, as well as by the responsible authorities – tacitly or explicitly – at the institute where the work has been carried out. The publisher will not be held legally responsible should there be any claims for compensation.

Permissions

Authors wishing to include figures, tables, or text passages that have already been published elsewhere are required to obtain permission from the copyright owner(s) for both the print and online format and to include evidence that such permission has been granted when submitting their papers. Any material received without such evidence will be assumed to originate from the authors.

Online Submission

Authors should submit their manuscripts online. Electronic submission substantially reduces the editorial processing and reviewing times and shortens overall publication times. Please follow the hyperlink “Submit online” on the right and upload all of your manuscript files following the instructions given on the screen. Alternatively, you may visit the following URL:

Additional Information

Additional information can be obtained from:

Stefan Harrendorf (stefan.harrendorf@uni-greifswald.de) or Stefanie Bock (stefanie.bock@jura.uni-goettingen.de), Managing Editors of the journal.
Manuscript Presentation

The journal’s language is English. British English or American English spelling and terminology may be used, but either one should be followed consistently throughout the article. Please double-space all material, including notes and references. Quotations of more than 40 words should be set off clearly, either by indenting the left-hand margin or by using a smaller typeface. Use double quotation marks for direct quotations and single quotation marks for quotations within quotations and for words or phrases used in a special sense.

Recommended length: maximum 20,000 words. The journal may consider submissions longer than this for exceptional pieces.

Number the pages consecutively with the first page containing:

- running head (shortened title)
- title
- author(s)
- affiliation(s)
- full address for correspondence, including telephone and fax number and e-mail address

Abstract

- Please provide a short abstract of 100 to 250 words. The abstract should not contain any undefined abbreviations or unspecified references.
- A list of 4-5 key words is to be provided directly below the abstract. Key words should express
- the precise content of the manuscript, as they are used for indexing purposes.

Abbreviations

- Abbreviations should be explained at first occurrence.

Section Headings
- First-, second-, third-, and fourth-order headings should be clearly distinguishable.

Acknowledgements

- Acknowledgements of people, grants, funds, etc. should be placed in a separate section.

Appendices

- Supplementary material should be collected in an Appendix.

Notes/References

- Please use footnotes rather than endnotes. Notes should be indicated by consecutive superscript numbers in the text. No cross-references (author, year) should be given in the article text; rather, cross-references should be mentioned in the footnotes, giving the complete reference upon first occurrence. Criminal Law Forum follows The Bluebook (Cambridge: The Harvard Law Review Association, 1991) style common to many law journals. Please consult previous issues for guidance, if required. A source reference note should be indicated by means of an asterisk after the title. This note should be placed at the bottom of the first page.

Figures, Tables, Images
8. Figures or illustrations (photographs, drawings, diagrams, and charts), are to be numbered in one consecutive series of Arabic numerals (e.g., Fig. 3). The captions for illustrations should be typed on a separate sheet of paper. Figures should be prepared with India ink or some other clear, high contrast process (e.g., laser printer). Either original drawings or good quality photographic prints are acceptable. Figure captions are abbreviated (e.g., Fig. 3. Time series plot). All images should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi

- Color Art
  - Color art is free of charge for online publication.
If black and white will be shown in the print version, make sure that the main information will still be visible. Many colors are not distinguishable from one another when converted to black and white. A simple way to check this is to make a xerographic copy to see if the necessary distinctions between the different colors are still apparent.

If the figures will be printed in black and white, do not refer to color in the captions.

9. Tables should be numbered (preferably with roman numerals) and referred to by number in the text (without abbreviation). Each table should be typed on a separate sheet of paper.

No page charges are levied on authors or their institutions. Colour figures are published online at no extra expense, and in print at the author’s expense only.

Copyright

Authors will be asked, upon acceptance of an article, to transfer copyright of the article to the Publisher. This will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information under copyright laws.

Permissions

It is the responsibility of the author to obtain written permission for a quotation from unpublished material, or for all quotations in excess of 250 words in one extract or 500 words in total from any work still in copyright, and for the reprinting of figures, tables or poems from unpublished or copyrighted material.
