International Urogynecology Journal (including Pelvic Floor Dysfunction) is an established peer reviewed monthly journal of the International Urogynecologic Association. The Journal has evolved in response to the need amongst scientists, researchers and clinicians active in the field of urogynecology and pelvic floor disorders. The Journal provides a forum for the expression of ideas and developments in the field. The clinical approach to urogynecology and pelvic floor disorders is emphasized in each issue containing clinically relevant material which is immediately applicable for clinical medicine. This publication covers all aspects of the field in an interdisciplinary fashion.

The International Urogynecology Journal is the official journal of the International Urogynecological Association (IUGA). The International Urogynecology Journal has evolved in response to a perceived need amongst the clinicians, scientists, and researchers active in the field of urogynecology and pelvic floor disorders. Gynecologists, urologists, physiotherapists, nurses and basic scientists require regular means of communication within this field of pelvic floor dysfunction to express new ideas and research, and to review clinical practice in the diagnosis and treatment of women with disorders of the pelvic floor.

Readership: Urologists, gynecologists, nurses, and basic scientists active in the field.

Cancellations are not accepted after the closing date for space reservations.

If an advertiser fails to provide new artwork for a particular issue by the printed deadline (or a pre-approved extension granted by the publisher), then the publisher will pick up the most recent artwork provided. If no artwork is on hand, then the advertiser will still be responsible for payments on space.

Acceptance Policy: The Publisher reserves the right to review and reject any advertising submitted to the journal which it deems as inappropriate for editorial content.

ONLINE ADVERTISEMENTS target the most active members of your target audience as they source information. Springer is a worldwide leader for providing dependable, essential e-information. Connect with your target audience with our online advertising options, or create a more robust impact with both print and online ads.

Our Advertising team focuses on two online advertising options:

Banner Ads - An embedded ad placed on our research site SpringerLink.com. Sized at 160x600, these ads are positioned on the top right of our web pages directly adjacent to our content listing. The new, wider skyscraper position will guarantee attention on your brand.

e-TOC Alert - An EXCLUSIVE right to advertise in our reader-subscribed email blast, on a per issue purchase basis. This alert details a summary of future content in the upcoming journal issue. Sized at 468x60, it is placed directly above the content listing in the email. These alerts have the highest click-through rates of all Springer e-products.

BROWSE OUR JOURNALS AT SPRINGERLINK.COM
