Research Priorities

• Meta-analyses on managerial constructs and research domains
• Editorials on current topics relevant to managerial research in marketing
• Research in service marketing, sales management, B2B, and retail domains
• Consumer-based strategy research including field experiments, managerially-controllable moderators, and objective outcomes
• Managerial research investigating dynamic effects using longitudinal and/or secondary data
• Review papers on managerially relevant topics

Review Process

Author submits paper
EIC evaluates for fit with JAMS and assign to 4 reviewers
ERB/ad hoc reviewers complete evaluations (25 days)
EIC rejects paper at first round before AE
EIC rejects paper at first round after AE
EIC desk rejects at first read
EIC evaluates paper/ reviews and assigns AE if not rejected
AE evaluates paper
EIC evaluates AE and reviewer comments
Author receives invitation for revision

Common Reasons for Rejection

• Single survey with all main effects hypotheses
• Behavioral research with little link to managerial research and few moderators that are managerially relevant
• Not positioned well for JAMS
• Lack of linkage to extant managerial research in marketing (e.g., JM, JAMS)
• Low managerial impact or contribution
• Narrow methods paper or scale development papers
