

The Harold D. Lasswell Prize

The Harold D. Lasswell Prize is awarded to the best article in each volume of Policy Sciences, as determined by a vote of the journal's international editorial board.

A monetary award of 500 USD is provided to the awardee by Springer.

The winner for 2006 is Ronald D. Brunner for "A Paradigm for Practice" which appeared in 39(2): 135–167.
Congratulations to Dr. Brunner.
