Copyright Transfer Statement

The Author of the Article as specified herein, hereby transfers copyright and assigns to the Société Internationale de Chirurgie all rights, title, and interest that the Author may have, or may at any time be found to have (for United States and United Kingdom Government employees to the extent transferable) in and to the Article and any revisions or versions thereof, including, but not limited to, the sole right to print, publish, and sell the Article throughout the World in all languages and media. This assignment shall be deemed in effect if and when the Article is accepted for publication.

Should the Article contain any material protected by the copyright of others, the Author will deliver to the Société written permission from the copyright owner to reproduce such material in the Article.

An author may self-archive an author-created version of his/her article on his/her own website. He/she may also deposit this version on his/her institution's and funder's (funder designated) repository at the funder's request or as a result of a legal obligation, including his/her final version, provided it is not made publicly available until after 12 months of official publication. He/she may not use the publisher's PDF version which is posted on www.springerlink.com for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit. Furthermore, the author may only post his/her version provided acknowledgement is given to the original source of publication and a link is inserted to the published article on Springer's website. The link must be accompanied by the following text: "The original publication is available at www.springerlink.com".

Please use the appropriate DOI for the article in the link. (This is designed to be a constant in the online environment. The structure of the link is <http://dx.doi.org/DOIprefix/suffix>; Example: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1007/s00348-004-0843-x>. The URL for the article appears in the Author Alert email the corresponding author receives when his/her article is first published online at SpringerLink. The DOI of the article is visible in a search result and on the article page at SpringerLink).

Authorship Responsibility

All individuals listed as authors should fulfill at least one criteria from each category:

1. Experiment Design and Data Collection
 - a. conception and design
 - b. acquisition of data
 - c. interpretation of data
2. Manuscript Creation
 - a. participated in drafting the article
 - b. revised it critically for important intellectual content
3. Manuscript Revision
 - a. have given final approval of the revision to be submitted and any revised version to be published.

Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content. Allowing one's name to appear as an author without having contributed significantly to the study or adding the name of an individual who has not contributed or who has not

Articles disseminated via www.springerlink.com are indexed, abstracted, and referenced by many abstracting and information services, bibliographic networks, subscription agencies, library networks, and consortia.

The Author represents and warrants that he/she is the author and proprietor of the Article, that he/she has not granted or assigned any rights in the Article to any other person or entity, that the Article is copyrightable, that it does not infringe upon any copyright, trademark, or patent, that it does not invade the right of privacy or publicity of any person or entity, that it does not contain any libelous matter, that all statements asserted as facts are true or based upon reasonable research for accuracy and that, to the best of the Author's knowledge, no formula, procedure, or prescription contained in the Article would cause injury if used or followed in accordance with the instructions and/or warnings contained in the Article.

The Author will indemnify the Société against any costs, expenses, or damages that the Société may incur or for which the Société may become liable as a result of any breach of these warranties. These representations and warranties may be extended to third parties by the Société.

agreed to the work in its current form is considered a breach of appropriate authorship.

Acquisition of funding, collection of data, contributing cases, or general supervision of the research group, of itself, or just being the Chair of the department does not justify authorship if the above criteria are not fulfilled.

As an author of this article, I certify that none of the material in the manuscript has been previously published, is included in another manuscript, or is currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. I also certify that this article has not been accepted for publication elsewhere, nor have I assigned any right or interest in the manuscript to any third party. Moreover, should the editor of World Journal of Surgery request the data upon which the manuscript is based, I shall produce it. I also certify that I have read and complied with the Consensus Statement on Submission and Publication of Manuscripts, as found in the June 2001 issue, and on the World Journal of Surgery home page website.
