WORLD JOURNAL OF SURGERY
PHOTOGRAPHIC CONSENT FORM

Article Title: ___________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

Author(s): __________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

I hereby grant Springer, as well as any and all of its affiliated companies the express and irrevocable authorization to use the above-referenced photographic images, in which I am pictured, in any and all forms of use, whether currently known or yet unknown; this right is not limited in terms of its duration, geographical extent, or substance. This right specifically includes, without being limited thereto, the right to reproduce the images; the right to publish and disseminate the same in printed and/or electronic form (specifically via reprinting in published materials or via use in offline and online databases); as well as the right to make the images publicly accessible in any and all forms (specifically via the internet, including social media); it also includes the right to display and/or publicly present the images. Provided any affected personal rights are respected, said images may be edited and/or modified (e.g. via montage; via combination with other images, texts or graphics; via technical photo manipulation, and/or via colorization). I understand that no remuneration will be paid.

__________________________________________________________

Accepted and Agreed:

__________________________________________________________

Signature of Subject

__________________________________________________________

Name of Subject (please print) Date

Send this completed and signed form with your manuscript to the World Journal of Surgery
Editorial Office via email to worldjsurg@ohsu.edu or fax +1 (503) 274-9433.
Questions? Please call (971) 275-2918.