

European Yearbook of International Economic Law

The European Yearbook on International Economic Law (EYIEL) is an annual publication on international economic law published by Springer. The EYIEL covers WTO Law, External Trade Law of major trading countries, important Regional Economic Integration agreements, International Competition Law, International Investment Regulation, International Monetary Law, International Intellectual Property Protection and International Tax Law. Now in its third year, the EYIEL has established itself as a major reference point in this field; its contributions are read and cited throughout the world.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The editors of EYIEL invite contributions from prospected authors with unpublished articles or working papers for EYIEL Volume 5 (2014) to be published at the end of 2013. The contributions should discuss subjects which fall into one of the following fields:

1. The Global Monetary and Financial System 70 Years After Bretton Woods
2. The Global Trading Order 20 Years After Marrakesh

Authors are requested to submit an abstract of no more than 500 words to the one of the editors of the EYIEL (see below). The deadline for the submission of abstracts is

28 February 2012.

The selection of papers will take place by the end of April 2012; the deadline for submission of the final version of the paper is

28 February 2013.

Final submissions should follow the house style (to be distributed with a letter of acceptance) and should not exceed 15.000 words (footnotes included).

The EYIEL especially encourages younger scholars to consider this call for papers and welcomes contributions from outside the EU.

Abstracts and further enquiries should be directed electronically (PDF) to one of the editors of the EYIEL.
