International Journal for the Advancement of Counselling

Editor: G.L. Hermansson

▸ Published under the auspices of the International Association for Counselling.
▸ Promotes the exchange of information about counselling activities throughout the world.
▸ Contains conceptual, practical and research contributions that provide an international perspective on a wide range of areas, from theories and models of guidance and counselling to counselling services in developing countries.

The International Journal for the Advancement of Counselling is published under the auspices of the International Association for Counselling. It promotes the exchange of information about counselling activities throughout the world. The journal contains conceptual, practical and research contributions that provide an international perspective on the following areas:

- theories and models of guidance and counselling
- counsellor education and supervision
- state of the art reports on guidance and counselling in specific settings
- special populations
- special applications
- counselling services in developing countries.

The International Journal for the Advancement of Counselling publishes original articles, major addresses and papers presented at the International Association for Counselling and other major international meetings, as well as thematic reviews and discussions related to guidance and counselling.

On the homepage of International Journal for the Advancement of Counselling at springer.com you can

▸ Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
▸ Get to know the complete Editorial Board
▸ Find submission information