Editor-in-Chief: F. Cowell

Associate Editors: O. Bargain; A. Brandolini; V. Dardanoni; C. García-Peñalosa; M. Jäntti; D. Van de gaer

Founding Editor: J. Silber

- ▶ Provides a forum for analysis of economic inequality
- ▶ Considers uni- and multidimensional measures of "well-being", from cross-sectional and longitudinal perspectives
- ▶ Examines living standards, inequality, and poverty, within and between countries, globally, and their trends over time

The Journal of Economic Inequality provides a forum for analysis and measurement of economic and social inequalities, using theoretical and empirical approaches. Among the topics considered are: differences within and between countries, and globally; inequalities of outcome and of opportunity, poverty, and mobility; univariate and multivariate approaches; differences between socioeconomic groups; the factor distribution of income; related statistical and data issues, and policy analysis.
