Small Business Economics
An Entrepreneurship Journal
Editors-in-Chief: Z.J. Acs, D.B. Audretsch

93% of authors who answered a survey reported that they would definitely publish or probably publish in the journal again.

Small Business Economics: An Entrepreneurship Journal publishes rigorous research on entrepreneurship, self-employment, family firms, small and medium-sized firms, and new venture creation. The journal has a broad scope, including entrepreneurs’ characteristics, occupational choice, new ventures and innovation, firms life courses and performance; as well as the role played by institutions and public policies within local, regional, national and international contexts. Articles published in Small Business Economics typically emphasize the economic and societal relevance of research findings. As a leading entrepreneurship journal, Small Business Economics publishes both theoretical and empirical papers, while encouraging interdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary research from a broad spectrum of disciplines and related fields.

Officially cited as: Small Bus Econ

Impact Factor: 2.421 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

On the homepage of Small Business Economics at springer.com you can

- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information