International Journal of Health Geographics

Editor-in-Chief: M.N.K. Boulos

- Average time to first decision of 28.5 days
- 5-Year Impact Factor: 2.825
- 100% of authors surveyed in 2015 would publish in the journal again and recommend it to a colleague

International Journal of Health Geographics is fully dedicated to publishing novel, high quality and internationally significant manuscripts on all aspects of geospatial information systems and science applications in health and healthcare. The journal fills a serious gap in existing journals by providing a credible central venue for researchers and practitioners to publish their health geographics research.

Impact Factor: 3.282 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

Giving authors in their area of expertise the opportunity to publish open access

- High visibility thanks to unrestricted online access
- Rigorous peer-review and high-quality author services
- Creative Commons licensed – authors retain copyright
- Citation tracking and inclusion in bibliographic databases
- Easy compliance with open access mandates

Electronic access

- ij-healthgeographics.biomedcentral.com