Attention, Perception, & Psychophysics

Editor-in-Chief: M.D. Dodd

- Spans all areas of research in sensory processes, perception, attention and psychophysics
- Founded in 1966
- A publication of the Psychonomic Society

The journal Attention, Perception, & Psychophysics is an official journal of the Psychonomic Society. It spans all areas of research in sensory processes, perception, attention, and psychophysics. Most articles published are reports of experimental work; the journal also presents theoretical, integrative, and evaluative reviews. Founded in 1966 as Perception & Psychophysics, the journal assumed its present name in 2009.

The journal also encourages studies with a neuroscientific perspective that enhance our understanding of attention, perception, and psychophysics.

- For editorial-related inquiries, please contact Editor-in-Chief Mike Dodd, Ph.D, at mdodd2@unl.edu
- For questions concerning ScholarOne’s manuscript submission system, please contact journals@psychonomic.org

Attention Perception & Psychophysics, a journal of The Psychonomic Society, is committed to upholding principles of integrity in scientific publishing and practice. As a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), the journal will follow COPE guidelines concerning procedures for handling potential acts of professional misconduct.

Impact Factor: 1.863 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

On the homepage of Attention, Perception, & Psychophysics at springer.com you can

- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information