Public International Law
A Current Bibliography of Books and Articles
Editors: A. von Bogdandy
Editor: A. Peters

➤ Offers current bibliographic information on articles spanning all aspects of public international law published in journals, yearbooks, and commemorative compilations
➤ Provides a comprehensive source of information covering all the current literature in the field
➤ Lists recently published monographs and collections of essays in addition to commemorative compilations

Since 1975, Public International Law has presented current bibliographic information on articles spanning all aspects of public international law that have been published in journals, yearbooks, and commemorative compilations. The journal also lists recently published monographs and collections of essays in addition to commemorative compilations. The Bibliography also references the individual contributions found in such collections, thus providing a comprehensive source of information covering all the current literature in the field.

On the homepage of Public International Law at springer.com you can ➤ Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
➤ Get to know the complete Editorial Board
➤ Find submission information