Chemical Research in Chinese Universities
Editor-in-Chief: Q.-f. Zhou

▶ A comprehensive academic journal in the field of chemistry founded in 1984, indexed by SCIE
▶ Reports the latest and most creative results of important fundamental research in all aspects of chemistry and of developments with significant consequences across subdisciplines
▶ The Editorial Board and the Advisory Board consist of 89 well-known chemists, and 37 of them are the Academicians of the Chinese Academy of Sciences

This journal reports on important fundamental research in all aspects of chemistry, offering research articles, letters/communications and reviews by faculty, researchers and postgraduates in universities, colleges and research institutes in China and overseas.

Impact Factor: 1.024 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

On the homepage of Chemical Research in Chinese Universities at springer.com you can ▶ Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
▶ Get to know the complete Editorial Board
▶ Find submission information