Large-scale Assessments in Education
An IEA-ETS Research Institute Journal
Editor-in-Chief: M. von Davier; D. Hastedt

- Helps disseminate state-of-the-art information about empirical research
- Focuses on improving the science of large-scale educational assessments
- A joint publication of the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement (IEA) and Educational Testing Service (ETS)

A joint publication of the International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement (IEA) and Educational Testing Service (ETS), this journal reports on progress in the science of large-scale educational assessments.

Giving authors in their area of expertise the opportunity to publish open access
- High visibility thanks to unrestricted online access
- Rigorous peer-review and high-quality author services
- Creative Commons licensed – authors retain copyright
- Citation tracking and inclusion in bibliographic databases
- Easy compliance with open access mandates