Netherlands International Law Review

International Law, Conflict of Laws
Editor-in-Chief: P. Vlas

▶ Provides innovative and challenging coverage of international law in The Hague
▶ Presents articles, case notes, commentaries, book reviews and overviews on the latest legal developments
▶ A trusted source of information and insight for scholars, practitioners and others

The Netherlands International Law Review (NILR) is one of the world’s leading journals in the fields of public and private international law. It is published three times a year, and features peer-reviewed, innovative, and challenging articles, case notes, commentaries, book reviews and overviews of the latest legal developments in The Hague. The NILR was established in 1953 and has since become a valuable source of information for scholars, practitioners and anyone who wants to stay up-to-date of the most important developments in these fields.

In the subscription to the Netherlands International Law Review the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law (NYIL) is included. A special membership rate is available to the members of the Dutch Society of International Law.

The NILR is published by T.M.C. Asser Press, in cooperation with the T.M.C. Asser Instituut, and is distributed by Springer International Publishing. T.M.C. Asser Instituut, an inter-university institute for Private and Public International Law and European Law, was founded in 1965 by the law faculties of the Dutch universities. The Institute is responsible for the promotion of education and research in international law.

On the homepage of Netherlands International Law Review at springer.com you can

▶ Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
▶ Get to know the complete Editorial Board
▶ Find submission information