Journal of Pediatric Neuropsychology

Editor-in-Chief: A.S. Davis

The Journal of Pediatric Neuropsychology is the official journal of the American Academy of Pediatric Neuropsychology. The journal publishes original peer-reviewed research focused on the needs of children and adolescents with neurodevelopmental or neurocognitive disorders. Manuscripts should have practical applications for a pediatric population in clinical, school, and/or forensic settings. Topics the Journal may consider publishing include neuropsychological assessment, evidence-based interventions, neurodevelopment, neurorehabilitation, psychopharmacology, neuroimaging, biomarkers, ethical and legal issues, test construction and psychometrics, and hospital to home and school transitions.
