Adolescent Research Review
Editor-in-Chief: R.J.R. Levesque

► Publishes articles that explore and analyze important contributions to the understanding of adolescence
► Spans many allied disciplines from developmental psychology to criminology, psychiatry, social work, public health, medicine, and more ► Advances science, practice, and policy relating to youth and adolescents

The journal is especially interested in receiving manuscripts that bridge gaps between disciplines or focus on topics that transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries.
