International Journal for Educational Integrity
Editor-in-Chief: T. Bretag

- Presents research, theoretical discussion and review papers in the relatively new field of educational integrity
- Illuminates the impact of educational integrity on pedagogy, academic standards, intercultural understanding and equity
- Covers plagiarism, cheating, honour codes, institutional integrity, student motivation, and other topics

This journal presents research which casts light on the changing nature of education in a globalized environment, and the impact of educational integrity on pedagogy, academic standards, intercultural understanding and equity.

Giving authors in their area of expertise the opportunity to publish open access
- High visibility thanks to unrestricted online access
- Rigorous peer-review and high-quality author services
- Creative Commons licensed – authors retain copyright
- Citation tracking and inclusion in bibliographic databases
- Easy compliance with open access mandates