The top-ranked journal in the field of international business, Journal of International Business Studies (JIBS) is multidisciplinary in scope and interdisciplinary in content and methodology, publishing content from across the six sub-domains of international business studies:

1. the activities, strategies, structures and decision-making processes of multinational enterprises;
2. interactions between multinational enterprises and other actors, organizations, institutions, and markets;
3. the cross-border activities of firms (e.g., intrafirm trade, finance, investment, technology transfers, offshore services);
4. how the international environment (e.g., cultural, economic, legal, political) affects the activities, strategies, structures and decision-making processes of firms;
5. the international dimensions of organizational forms (e.g., strategic alliances, mergers and acquisitions) and activities (e.g., entrepreneurship, knowledge-based competition, corporate governance);
6. cross-country comparative studies of businesses, business processes and organizational behavior in different countries and environments.
