Acta Politica

International Journal of Political Science

Editor: R. Vliegenthart

- The official journal of the Dutch Political Science Association (Nederlandse Kring voor de Wetenschap der Politiek)
- Publishes research and developments of both a theoretical and empirical nature in all sub-areas of political science
- Well-established in its field, with more than 50 years of publication

Acta Politica is one of the few truly international political science journals with a broad scope across the discipline. Sub-areas include Dutch and comparative politics, international relations, political theory, public administration, and political communication.

Despite this broad scope Acta Politica is very selective about the quality of the articles that it publishes, with an acceptance rate around 35%. The journal has always been committed to publishing articles with an 'edge'; providing new insights or new approaches in political science.
