Asian Business & Management
Editor-in-Chief: M. Witt

- The first business and management journal on Asia to be included in the Social Sciences Citation Index®
- Open to submissions in all disciplines and fields of research in management and business so long as they are related to Asia
- Published in association with the Euro-Asia Management Studies Association (EAMSA), Association of Japanese Business Studies (AJBS), Australia and New Zealand International Business Academy (ANZIBA), Japan Academy of Labor and Management (JALM) and the Japan Academy of Business Administration (JABA)

Asian Business & Management (ABM) is an academic general management and business journal, spanning all disciplines and fields of research in these areas as they relate to Asia.

The journal encourages papers that draw on one of the various streams of the business systems literature, broadly conceived, to generate new insights into the societal embeddedness of firms in Asia and the consequences of such embeddedness on managerial and business processes, structures, and outcomes.

Impact Factor: 1.133 (2016), Journal Citation Reports®

On the homepage of Asian Business & Management at springer.com you can

- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information