Asian Business & Management

Editor-in-Chief: F.J. Froese

- First journal on Asian business and management ranked in the Social Sciences Citation Index
- Provides thought-provoking insights into Asian business and management
- Multi-disciplinary coverage of topics relevant to Asian business and management
- Open to a wide-array of methodological approaches

Asian Business & Management (ABM) is an academic management and business journal with a focus on Asia. The journal covers topics in the areas of corporate governance, human resource management, marketing, organizational behavior, organization theory, strategy, technology management, and related areas. ABM addresses a fundamental business question:

What are the drivers of successful Asian business and management? ABM distinguishes itself from general business and management journals as it focuses on the Asian context. The focus on Asia is an important and appealing feature of ABM. ABM is open to different methodological approaches, including quantitative, qualitative, mixed-methods, and conceptual work, contributing to an enhanced understanding of Asian business and management.

Asian Business & Management is published in association with the Euro-Asia Management Studies Association; Association of Japanese Business Studies; Japan Academy of Labor and Management; and the Japan Academy of Business Administration.

Impact Factor: 1.133 (2016), Journal Citation Reports*

On the homepage of Asian Business & Management at springer.com you can

- Sign up for our Table of Contents Alerts
- Get to know the complete Editorial Board
- Find submission information