Communities of Practice: Art, Play, and Aesthetics in Early Childhood

- Offers a comprehensive introduction to new ways of thinking about the place of art, play, and aesthetics in the lives and education of young children
- Combines perspectives on practice and research grounded in contemporary critical and poststructuralist theories
- Draws on childhood studies, the new sociology of childhood, early childhood education, and art education
- Includes stories of children experiencing art in social settings, in dialogue with materials, peers, and adults

Reflecting contemporary theory and research in early art education, this volume offers a comprehensive introduction to new ways of thinking about the place of art, play, and aesthetics in the lives and education of young children. Enlivened by narratives and illustrations, 16 authors offer perspectives on the lived experience of being a child and discovering the excitement of making meaning and form in the process of art, play, and aesthetic inquiry.
