Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Preface</th>
<th>vii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Contributors</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part I. Nature and Evolution of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry

1. Evolution of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry and Psychosomatic Medicine. ................................................. 3
   Hoyle Leigh

2. The Functions of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry. ............... 12
   Hoyle Leigh

3. The Why and How of Psychiatric Consultation ...................... 16
   Hoyle Leigh

4. Evaluating the Evidence Base of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry . ................................................................. 28
   Tom Sensky

5. Common Reasons for Psychiatric Consultation ..................... 37
   Hoyle Leigh

Part II. Psychiatric Syndromes in Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry

6. Basic Foundations of Diagnosis, Psychiatric Diagnosis and Final Common Pathway Syndromes .................................. 53
   Hoyle Leigh

7. Delirium, Dementia, Alcohol Intoxication, and Withdrawal Syndromes ............................................................ 74
   Hoyle Leigh

8. Anxiety and Anxiety Syndromes. .................................... 89
   Hoyle Leigh

9. Depression, Mania, and Mood Syndromes .......................... 98
   Hoyle Leigh

10. Psychosis ........................................................................ 106
    Hoyle Leigh
11. Chronic Pain ................................................................. Jon Streltzer 119
12. Substance Use Problems .................................................. Jon Streltzer 131
13. Psychological Factors Affecting Physical Conditions, Somatoform Disorders, Conversion, Dissociation, and Factitious Syndromes. ....... Hoyle Leigh 141
14. Hypochondriasis and Somatization Disorder ......................... Don R. Lipsitt 152
15. The Patient’s Personality, Personality Types, Traits, and Disorders. ... Hoyle Leigh 168

Part III. Special Patients and Settings in Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry
16. The Acutely Ill Patient in the Intensive Care Unit Setting. .......... Hoyle Leigh 183
17. The Chronic Patient, Palliative Care Settings, and the Dying Patient . Hoyle Leigh 187
18. Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry in the Outpatient Setting ............. Jane Walker and Michael Sharpe 192
19. The Dialysis and Kidney Transplant Patient ......................... Norman B. Levy and Adam Mirot 205
20. Immune-Compromised Patients: Human Immunodeficiency Virus and Organ Transplantation .......................... Khenu Singh, Christine Skotzko, and Herb Ochitill 221
21. The Liver-Impaired Patient ................................................ Nancy Withers 248
22. Cultural Aspects of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry .................. Wen-Shing Tseng and Jon Streltzer 270
24. Children and Adolescents ................................................ Anthony Guerrero and Courtenay Matsu 316
25. The Geriatric Patient .................................................... Lori Murayama and Iqbal Ahmed 341
26. The Emergency Department Setting .................................. Seth Powsner 361
Part IV. Special Techniques in Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry

27. Interviewing in Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry. ................. 387
   Jon Streltzer and Hoyle Leigh

28. Systems Understanding and Intervention, and Ethical Issues. .... 394
   Hoyle Leigh

29. Special Procedures: Intravenous Sedative Interviews, Hoover Test, and Hypnosis ................................................................. 403
   Hoyle Leigh

Index ................................................................. 411
Handbook of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry
Leigh, H.; Streltzer, J. (Eds.)
2007, XIV, 420 p. 10 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-0-387-69253-1