PART 1: PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE LECTURE ON TRANSCENDENTAL LOGIC

1. Introduction .................................................................................................................................. 1
2. “Thinking” as the Theme of Logic. Speaking, Thinking, What is Thought ............................. 8
3. The Ideality of Linguistic Phenomena ...................................................................................... 10
4. Thinking as a Sense Constituting Lived-Experience ............................................................... 13
5. Sense-Constituting Lived-Experiences as Egoic Acts ........................................................... 16
6. Foreground Lived-Experiences and Background Lived-Experiences .................................... 19
7. The Interconnection between Expressing and Signifying as the Unity of an Egoic Act .......... 22
8. Theme, Interest, Indication ....................................................................................................... 25
9. The Regression from Theoretical Logos to the Pre-theoretical Sense-Giving Life of Consciousness .......................................................................................................................... 27
10. Perception and Perceptual Sense ............................................................................................ 34

PART 2: ANALYSES CONCERNING PASSIVE SYNTHESIS: TOWARD A TRANSCENDENTAL AESTHETIC

SELF-GIVING IN PERCEPTION ........................................................................................................ 39
§1. Original Consciousness and the Perspectival Adumbration of Spatial Objects .................. 39
§2. The Relationship of Fullness and Emptiness in the Perceptual Process and the Acquisition of Knowledge ......................................................................................................................... 44
§3. The Possibility of Our Acquired Knowledge Being Freely at Our Disposal ....................... 47
§4. The Relation of esse and percpipi in Immanent and Transcendent Perception .................. 53
Division 1: Modalization

CHAPTER 1: THE MODE OF NEGATION................................................................. 63
§5. Disappointment as an Occurrence that Runs Counter to the Synthesis of Fulfillment .......................................................................................... 63
§6. Partial Fulfillment—Conflict through Unexpected Sense Data—Restored Concordance .. 66
§7. Retroactive Crossing Out in the Retentional Sphere and the Transformation of the Previous Perceptual Sense .................................................................... 69
CHAPTER 2: THE MODE OF DOUBT..................................................................... 72
§8. Conflict between Two Superimposed Perceptual Apprehensions Having the Same
   Hyletic Stock .......................................................................................... 72
§9. Resolving Doubt through the Transition to a Ratifying Certainty or Negation ......... 75
CHAPTER 3: THE MODE OF POSSIBILITY .......................................................... 79
§10. Open Possibilities as the Indeterminate Scope of Intentional Prefiguring .......... 79
§11. Enticing Possibilities as the Tendencies to Believe within Doubt ................. 81
§12. The Contrast between Open and Enticing Possibilities .................................. 83
§13. Modes of Certainty As Such in Their Relation to Enticing and Open Possibilities .... 84
CHAPTER 4: PASSIVE AND ACTIVE MODALIZATION ....................................... 92
§14. Position-Taking of the Ego as the Active Response to the Modal Modifications of Passive Doxa ......................................................................................... 92
§15. Questioning as a Multi-Layered Striving toward Overcoming Modalization through a Judicative Decision ............................................................... 99

Division 2: Evidence

CHAPTER 1: THE STRUCTURE OF FULFILLMENT ............................................. 106
§16. Fulfillment: Syntheses of Empty Presentation and Corresponding Intuition .......... 106
§17. Description of the Possible Types of Intuition ........................................... 110
§18. Description of the Possible Types of Empty Presentation ............................. 113
CHAPTER 2: PASSIVE AND ACTIVE INTENTIONS AND THE FORMS OF THEIR CONFIRMATION AND VERIFICATION .......................................................................................... 121
§19. Picturing, Clarifying, and Confirmation in the Syntheses of Bringing to Intuition .... 121
§20. Intention Toward Fulfillment is the Intention Toward Self-Giving ...................... 126
§21. Epistemic Striving and Striving after the Effective Realization of the Presented Object . 130
§22. The Different Relationships of Intention and the Intended Self. Secondary Verification 136
CHAPTER 3: THE PROBLEM OF DEFINITIVENESS IN EXPERIENCE ..................... 145
§23. The Problematic Character of a Verification that is Possible for All Intentions and Its Consequence for Belief in Experience .................................................... 145
§24. Development of the Problem of the In-itself for the Immanent Sphere .................. 154
§25. Rememberings as the Source for an In-Itself of Objects .................................. 157

§48. Consciousness as a Storied Structure of Constitutive Accomplishments. The Disciplines of a Systematic Investigation ................................................................. 269

PART 3: ANALYSES CONCERNING ACTIVE SYNTHESIS: TOWARD A TRANSCENDENTAL, GENETIC LOGIC

INTRODUCTION. CIRCUMSCRIBING THE INVESTIGATIONS INTO THE ACTIVE EGO .............................................. 275

§49. The Relation between Activity and Passivity .............................................................. 275

§51. Playful and Positional Consciousness ...................................................................... 283

CHAPTER 1: ACTIVE OBJECTIVATION .................................................................................. 287

§52. Cognitive Interest and Striving for Knowledge ......................................................... 287

§53. Explicative Acquisition of Knowledge .................................................................. 290

§54. The Active Synthesis of Identification. The Most Strict Sense of Objectivation ........ 293

CHAPTER 2: THE FUNDAMENTAL STRUCTURES AND FUNDAMENTAL FORMS OF JUDGMENT ................. 298

§55. The Possible Objectivation of Judgment and of its Components. Syntactic Matter, Syntactic Form, and Syntagma ................................................................. 298

§56. The Ideality of the Judicative Proposition in the Sense of Omni-Temporality ............. 302

§57. The Forms of Judgment Issuing from Determinative and Total Identifications .......... 304

CHAPTER 3: THE SYNTACTIC AND THE OBJECT-THEORETICAL DIRECTIONS OF EXAMINATION ............. 311

§58. Sensible and Intellectual Objects. Substrate-Objects and Determination-Objects. Independent and Non-Independent Objects ......................................................... 311

§59. Whole and Part. Sets as Special Cases of Wholes ..................................................... 316
