CONTENTS

Preface xi

List of Contributors xv

Section 1: Introduction

1. The global scene for geographical education
   Rod Gerber 3

Section 2: International Trends

2. Globalisation and geographical education
   Rod Gerber 21

3. Relevant knowledge, skills and values in geographical education
   John Lidstone 35

4. Maximising the use of communication technologies in geographical education
   Lea Houtsonen 47

5. Old cultures, new cultures in geographical education
   Manuela Malheiro Ferreira 65

6. Geography and the community
   Josefina Ostuni 75

Section 3: Refocussing Learning and Teaching

7. Experience and Learning in Geography
   Margaret Robertson 89

8. Alternative geography
   Sarah Bednarz and Robert Bednarz 99

9. Continuity and change in geography education: learning and teaching
   Joseph P. Stoltman and Lisa DeChano 115
Section 4: Improving Curriculum Planning and Development

10. Geography curriculum planning in evolution: some historical and international perspectives
    Bill Marsden
    141

11. Effective approaches to curriculum development in geography
    David Lambert
    159

12. The role of teachers in developing school geography curriculum
    Julie Okpala and Richard Tabulawa
    171

13. International collaboration in the field of environmental and geographical education
    Taina Kaivola
    191

Section 5: Innovation and Change in Geographical Education

14. New media will accelerate the renewal of geographic education
    Joop van der Schee
    205

15. Career-long professional development for geography teachers
    Simon Catling
    215

16. Alliances, networks and partnerships in geographic education
    David Lanegran
    235

17. A question of standards in geographical education
    Phillip Stimpson
    245

Section 6: A Focus on Research in Geographical Education

18. Research in geographical education: the search for impact
    Michael Williams
    259

19. Geography teachers as action researchers
    Graham Butt
    273

20. Exploring relationships between teaching and research in geography education
    Frances Slater
    285

Section 7: International Geographical Education Futures

21. Lifelong geographical education
    Hannele Cantell and Hannele Rikkinen
    301
22. Self-directed learning and self-directed learners in geographical education
   Tammy Kwan

23. Improved intercultural geographical education
   Helena Allahwerdi and Hannele Rikkinen

24. Geography and information and communications technologies:
    some futures thinking
   W. Ashley Kent
International Handbook on Geographical Education
Gerber, R. (Ed.)
2003, XVIII, 348 p. 7 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-1-4020-1019-4