Part I  General Models of Individual Differences in Cognition

1  Individual Differences in Cognition: in Search of a General Model of Behaviour Control
   Philip J. Corr
   .................................................. 3

2  Individual Differences in Cognition: New Methods for Examining the Personality-Cognition Link
   William Revelle, Joshua Wilt, and Allen Rosenthal
   .................................................. 27

3  The Relationship Between Intelligence and Pavlovian Temperament Traits: The Role of Gender and Level of Intelligence
   Magdalena Kaczmarek, Jan Strelau, and Agnieszka Miklewska
   .................................................. 51

4  General Models of Individual Differences in Cognition: The Commentaries
   Philip Corr, William Revelle, Joshua Wilt, and Allen Rosenthal
   .................................................. 63

Part II  Individual Differences in Cognition from a Neurophysiological Perspective

5  Neuroscientific Approaches to the Study of Individual Differences in Cognition and Personality
   Aljoscha C. Neubauer and Andreas Fink
   .................................................. 73

6  Cognitive Neuroscience Approaches to Individual Differences in Working Memory and Executive Control: Conceptual and Methodological Issues
   Tal Yarkoni and Todd S. Braver
   .................................................. 87

7  Emotional Intelligence and Gender: A Neurophysiological Perspective
   Norbert Jaušovec and Ksenija Jaušovec
   .................................................. 109

8  Learned Irrelevance Revisited: Pathology-Based Individual Differences, Normal Variation and Neural Correlates
   Aleksandra Gruszka, Adam Hampshire, and Adrian M. Owen
   .................................................. 127

9  Post-Soviet Psychology and Individual Differences in Cognition: A Psychophysiological Perspective
   Almira Kustubayeva
   .................................................. 145
10 Individual Differences in Cognition from a Neurophysiological Perspective: The Commentaries .......................................................... 169
   Todd S. Braver, Tal Yarkoni, Aleksandra Gruszka, Adam Hampshire, Adrian M. Owen, Norbert Jaušovec, Almira Kustubayeva, Aljoscha C. Neubauer, and Andreas Fink

Part III Individual Differences in Attentional Mechanisms

11 Psychopathology and Individual Differences in Latent Inhibition: Schizophrenia and Schizotypality .................................................. 181
   R.E. Lubow and Oren Kaplan

12 Attentional Control Theory of Anxiety: Recent Developments .................. 195
   Michael W. Eysenck

13 Task Engagement, Attention, and Executive Control .................................. 205
   Gerald Matthews, Joel S. Warm, Lauren E. Reinerman, Lisa K. Langheim, and Dyanì J. Saxby

14 Individual Differences in Resource Allocation Policy .................................. 231
   Błażej Szymura

15 The Relationship of Attention and Intelligence ........................................ 247
   Karl Schweizer

16 Intelligence and Cognitive Control ............................................................ 263
   Adam Chuderski and Edward Nęcka

17 Individual Differences in Attention: The Commentaries ................................ 283
   Michael W. Eysenck, Gerald Matthews, Edward Nęcka, Adam Chuderski, Karl Schweizer, and Błażej Szymura

Part IV Individual Differences in Working Memory Functioning and Higher-Order Processing

18 Trait and State Differences in Working Memory Capacity .......................... 295
   Małgorzata Ilkowska and Randall W. Engle

19 Adrift in the Stream of Thought: The Effects of Mind Wandering on Executive Control and Working Memory Capacity ..................... 321
   Jennifer C. McVay and Michael J. Kane

20 The Unique Cognitive Limitation in Subclinical Depression: The Impairment of Mental Model Construction ......................................... 335
   Grzegorz Sedek, Aneta Brzezicka, and Ulrich von Hecker

21 Working Memory Capacity and Individual Differences in Higher-Level Cognition ................................................................. 353
   Jarosław Orzechowski
