Part I  KM and Urban Health

1 Knowledge Management for the Urban Health Context ................. 3
   M. Chris Gibbons, Rajeev K. Bali, and Nilmini Wickramasinghe

2 Healthcare Knowledge Management: Incorporating the Tools Technologies Strategies and Process of KM to Effect Superior Healthcare Delivery ................................................................. 21
   Nilmini Wickramasinghe

3 Knowledge Management in the Urban Health Context: Moving Towards Tacit-to-Tacit Knowledge Transfer ....................... 39
   Rajeev K. Bali, Vikram Baskaran, and Raouf N.G. Naguib

Part II  Incorporating KM Principles into Urban Health Contexts

4 A Childhood/Adolescent Knowledge Management System for Urban Area Health Programs in the District of Columbia .......... 51
   Michael L. Popovich and Xiaohui Zhang

5 Urban Health in Developing Countries........................................ 61
   Siddharth Agarwal, Aradhana Srivastava, and Sanjeev Kumar

6 A Pervasive Wireless Knowledge Management Solution to Address Urban Health Inequalities with Indigenous Australians ................................................................. 95
   Nilmini Wickramasinghe, Indrit Troshani, and Steve Goldberg

7 The Development of a Framework to Evaluate the Management of HIV/AIDS Programmes in Rural and Urban South Africa ........ 115
   Rochelle Sassman, Brian Lehaney, Rajeev K. Bali, Raouf N.G. Naguib, and Ian M. Marshall
8 The Potential of Serious Games for Improving Health and Reducing Urban Health Inequalities ............................................. 129
M. Chris Gibbons, Rajeev K. Bali, Ian M. Marshall, Raouf N.G. Naguib, and Nilmini Wickramasinghe

Part III Measures and Metrics for KM and Urban Health

9 A Scalable and Viable Strategy for Managing Organization: Typology of Intervening into Complex Healthcare Environment for Enhancing Its Continual Development ........................................... 139
Murako Saito

10 Amplifying Resonance in Organizational Learning Process: Knowledge Sharing for Overcoming Cognitive Barriers and for Assuring Positive Action ........................................................... 155
Murako Saito

11 Developing New Urban Health Metrics to Reduce the Know-Do Gap in Public Health ................................................................. 171
Carlos Castillo-Salgado and Michael Christopher Gibbons

12 Recommendations on Evaluation and Development of Useful Metrics for Urban Health ................................................................. 187
Carlos Castillo-Salgado and M. Chris Gibbons

13 Making Sense of Urban Health Knowledge ....................................................... 201
Rajeev K. Bali, V. Baskaran, M. Chris Gibbons, and Nilmini Wickramasinghe

Epilogue ........................................................................................................... 213

Index ................................................................................................................. 215
Perspectives of Knowledge Management in Urban Health
Gibbons, M.C.; Bali, R.; Wickramasinghe, N. (Eds.)
2010, XXXII, 220 p., Hardcover