Contents

Part I  Conceptual Framework

1. Theoretical Perspectives on Content Management
   Mario Pérez-Montoro
   - Page 3

2. From Content Management to E-Learning Content Repositories
   Julià Minguillón Alfonso, Miguel-Angel Sicilia, and Brian Lamb
   - Page 27

3. Learning Objects, Content Management, and E-Learning
   David Wiley
   - Page 43

4. On the Relationship Between Pedagogical Design and Content Management in eLearning
   Sandy Britain
   - Page 55

5. Information-Related Competencies for Teachers and Students in an E-Learning Environment
   Núria Ferran Ferrer and Sirje Virkus
   - Page 71

6. Copyright Issues in E-Learning
   Raquel Xalabarder
   - Page 87

Part II  Case studies and Practical Issues

7. Survey on Learning Content Management Systems
   Josep Maria Boneu
   - Page 113

8. E-Learning Standards for Content Management
   Salvador Sánchez-Alonso, María Gertrudis López, and Dirk Frosch-Wilke
   - Page 131
9 Learning Object Evaluation and Reuse: A Hong Kong Experience ...................................................... 157
Jennifer Jones and Carmel McNaught

10 Open Educational Resources: Motivations, Logistics and Sustainability ........................................... 179
Niall Sclater

Part III Conclusion

11 Content Management and E-Learning: A Strategic Perspective .................................................... 197
A.W. (Tony) Bates

Index ....................................................................................................................................................... 213
Content Management for E-Learning
Ferrer, N.F.; Alfonso, J.M. (Eds.)
2011, XIV, 215 p., Hardcover