Contents

Part I  Foundations of Collaborative Care

1  Psychology, Psychopharmacotherapy, and Pediatrics: When to Treat and When to Refer .......................................................... 3
Mark Muse, Syd Brown, and Tanya Cothran-Ross

2  Collaboration Between Pharmacologically Trained Psychologists and Pediatricians: History and Professional Issues .......................................................... 17
Robert E. McGrath

Part II  Collaboration with Pediatricians in Specific Settings

3  The Clinical Experience of RxP-Trained Psychologists Working in Non-RxP States .......................................................... 37
Thomas M. Kozak and Andrea Kozak Miller

4  The Practice of Medical Psychology in an RxP State: New Opportunities for Comprehensive Pediatric Care ....................... 49
Darlyne G. Nemeth, Sandra Franz, Emma Kruger, and Maydel M. Schexnayder

5  Integrated Care in Rural Settings .......................................................... 67
Nancy Boylan Alford

6  Collaborative Practice with Pediatricians Within the Indian Health Service: Taking Care of Frontier Children .......................................................... 95
Michael R. Tilus, Kevin M. McGuinness, Mimi Sa, Earl Sutherland, Bret A. Moore, Vincen Barnes, Johna C. Hartnell, and Anthony Tranchita
7 The Practice of Medical Psychology in a Pediatric Hospital Setting: A Personal Account from an R P State
John C. Courtney ................................................................. 119

Part III Collaboration with Pediatricians in Treatment of Specific Disorders

8 Collaborative Treatment of Disruptive and Mood Disorders
George M. Kapalka ............................................................. 135

9 Collaboration Between Pediatricians and Pharmacologically Trained Psychologists in the Treatment of Anxiety Disorders in Pediatric Patients
Sean R. Evers ..................................................................... 153

10 Collaborative Treatment of Eating Disorders
Marla M. Sanzone ............................................................... 167

11 Collaborative Treatment of Medical Disorders: The Management of Diabetes
Lawrence R. Kotkin ............................................................. 183

12 Collaborating with Pediatricians and Gastroenterologists: A Biopsychosocial Approach to Treatment of Gastrointestinal Disorders
Lindsay D. Clendaniel, Paul E. Hyman, and John C. Courtney ................................................................. 199

Part IV Future Directions in Pharmacological Collaboration

13 Brain Markers: An Emerging Technology with Potential to Enhance Collaboration Between Pediatricians and Pharmacologically Trained Psychologists
Margaret B. Alvarez ............................................................ 233

14 Internship and Fellowship Experiences: Preparing Psychology Trainees for Effective Collaboration with Primary Care Physicians
Veronica L. Raggi ............................................................... 249

15 The New Face of Psychology Predoctoral Training: Psychopharmacology and Collaborative Care
Traci Wimberly Olivier .......................................................... 271
16 R.P Training Informs the Practice of Supervision of Nonpharmacologically Trained Mental Health Practitioners ................................................................. 285
Andy Lopez-Williams

Index ..................................................................................................................... 301
Pediatricians and Pharmacologically Trained Psychologists
Practitioner’s Guide to Collaborative Treatment
Kapalka, G.M. (Ed.)
2011, XXIV, 303 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-1-4419-7779-3