Contents

Part I  Changes in Crime and Crime Control

1  Crime and Crime Control in Transition Countries
   Alenka Šelih
   3

Part II  Politics, Media and Fear of Crime

2  Politicians, Media, and Society’s Perception of Crime
   Anna Kossowska, Konrad Buczkowski, Witold Klaus,
   Irena Rzeplińska and Dagmara Woźniakowska-Fajst
   37

Part III  Surveillance, Policing and Penal Policy

3  Transformations of Surveillance: From National Security to Private Security Industry
   Aleš Završnik
   67

4  Policing Organised Crime: A Paradox of Transition?
   Primož Gorkič
   97

5  Penal Policy, Crime and Political Change
   Miklós Lévay
   117

Part IV  Emerging Types of Crime

6  Organized and Economic Crime: A Common Problem
   Martin Cejp and Miroslav Scheinost
   157
7 Corruption as a Metaphor for Societies in Transition? .......... 179
Velinka Grozdanić and Igor Martinović

8 Human Trafficking Between Profit and Survival ............... 205
Vesna Nikolić-Ristanović

9 Juvenile Delinquency and Juvenile Justice in Transition ....... 229
Hajrija Sijerčić-Čolić

Part V Deconstructing Transition(s)

10 Crime, Class Control, Structural Violence and Social Formations
    “In Transition” .................................................. 253
    Zoran Kanduč

Index ................................................................. 277
Crime and Transition in Central and Eastern Europe
Šelih, A.; Završnik, A. (Eds.)
2012, XXVI, 282 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-1-4614-3516-7