Contents

Part I Suppliers

1 Electronic Supply Chain Management Tools in International Business: Evidence from Austrian Food Clusters
   Ilias P. Vlachos, Dimitra Skoumpopoulou and Sandra Gutnik
   ........................................... 3

2 Challenges to the Adoption of E-commerce Technology for Supply Chain Management in a Developing Economy:
   A Focus on Nigerian SMEs
   Gareth R. T. White, Ademola Afolayan and Eoin Plant
   ........................................... 23

3 Rationalising the Security Concern of Cloud Enabled E-commerce in the Supply Chain Context
   Olatunde Amoo Durowoju
   ........................................... 41

Part II Retailers

4 Electronic Reverse Auctions: Emerging from the Shadows?
   Rana Tassabehji
   ........................................... 61

5 The Internet as a Small Business E-commerce Ecosystem
   Michael Buxton and Nigel Walton
   ........................................... 79

6 A Retailer Perspective of E-commerce Brand Management
   Richard Nathan Rutter
   ........................................... 101

Part III Consumers

7 Online Shopping and Human Factors
   Tomayess Issa
   ........................................... 131
8 Culture Dependent Benefits of E-commerce: A Consumer Perspective. .......................... 151
Ewelina Lacka

9 HCI and Usability Principles and Guidelines in the Website Development Process: An International Perspective. .............. 169
Tomayess Issa and Pedro Isaias
E-commerce Platform Acceptance
Suppliers, Retailers, and Consumers
Lacka, E.; Chan, H.; Yip, N. (Eds.)
2014, VIII, 189 p. 16 illus., 10 illus. in color., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-06120-7