Contents

Part I  Context and Background

1  Introduction: Understanding the Management of Police Services ......................................................... 3
   Paresh Wankhade and David Weir

2  Historical Perspective: British Policing and the Democratic Ideal ............................................................. 15
   John G. D. Grieve

Part II  Context of Policing

3  Quo Vadis: A New Direction for Police Leadership Through Community Engagement? ................................................. 29
   Andrew C. Fisher and John M. Phillips

4  Initial Police Training and the Development of Police Occupational Culture ............................................... 45
   Julian Constable and Jonathan Smith

5  Community Engagement, Democracy and Public Policy: A Practitioner Perspective ........................................ 61
   Susan Ritchie

6  Dealing with Diversity in Police Services .......................................................... 73
   Rowland Moore

7  Risk Management in Policing ......................................................................................................................... 79
   Andrea Bishop

8  Perspectives on the Essence of Policing ....................................................................................................... 85
   Jon Murphy
Part III  Current Debates in Policing

9 Enhancing Police Accountability in England and Wales:
   What Differences are Police and Crime Commissioners Making? .... 97
   John W. Raine

10 Police Management and Workforce Reform in a Period of Austerity .......................................................... 115
   Barry Loveday

11 Personal Resilience and Policing ................................................. 129
   Jonathan Smith and Ginger Charles

Part IV  Looking to the Future

12 Some Futures for the Police: Scenarios and Science ...................... 145
   David Weir and Paresh Wankhade

13 The Future of Policing in the United Kingdom ............................ 151
   Timothy Meaklim

14 Future Perspectives in Policing: A Crisis or a Perfect Storm: The Trouble with Public Policing? ......................... 161
   Peter Neyroud

15 International Perspectives in Policing: Challenges for 2020 .......... 167
   Colin Rogers

16 International Perspectives in Policing: Challenges for 2020 .......... 173
   Jacques de Maillard

Index ............................................................................................................. 179
Police Services
Leadership and Management Perspectives
Wankhade, P.; Weir, D. (Eds.)
2015, XI, 181 p. 6 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-16567-7