Part I New Sensing Technologies for Societies and Environment

Introduction	3
Andreas Hotho, Gerd Stumme, and Jan Theunis
1 Human Sensors on the Move	9
Denzil Ferreira, Vassilis Kostakos, and Immanuel Schweizer
2 Sensing the Environment	21
Jan Theunis, Matthias Stevens, and Dick Botteldooren
3 Observing Human Activity Through Sensing	47
Sidharta Gautama, Martin Atzmueller, Vasillis Kostakos, Dominique Gillis, and Simo Hosio
4 Human Sensors	69
Vassilis Kostakos, Jakob Rogstadius, Denzil Ferreira, Simo Hosio, and Jorge Goncalves
5 Privacy, Trust and Incentives in Participatory Sensing	93
Mehdi Riahi, Rameez Rahman, and Karl Aberer
6 Collective Sensing Platforms	115
Martin Atzmueller, Martin Becker, and Juergen Mueller
7 Applications for Environmental Sensing in EveryAware	135
Martin Atzmueller, Martin Becker, Andrea Molino, Juergen Mueller, Jan Peters, and Alina Sirbu

Part II Citizen Science, Participatory Sensing and Social Computation

Introduction	159
Mordechai (Muki) Haklay and Vito D.P. Servedio

8	The Three Eras of Environmental Information: The Roles of Experts and the Public	163
	Mordechai (Muki) Haklay
9	Cartographic Visualisation of Noise and Aspects of Public Understanding of this Information	181
	Beate Tomio (Weninger)
10	Usability and Interaction Dimensions of Participatory Noise and Ecological Monitoring	201
	Charlene Jennett, Eleonora Cognetti, Joanne Summerfield, and Muki Haklay
11	Participatory Sensing: Recruiting Bipedal Platforms or Building Issue-centred Projects?	213
	Christian Nold and Louise Francis
12	Large Scale Engagement Through Web-Gaming and Social Computations	237
	Vito D.P. Servedio, Saverio Caminiti, Pietro Gravino, Vittorio Loreto, Alina Sîrbu, and Francesca Tria
13	Participatory Air Quality Monitoring in Urban Environments: Reconciling Technological Challenges and Participation	255
	Jan Theunis, Jan Peters, and Bart Elen
14	Getting Out of Their Way: Do-It-Yourselfers, Sensing, and Self-Reliance	273
	Cindy Regalado
 Part III Collective Awareness, Learning and Decision Making
	Introduction	301
	Vittorio Loreto and Francesca Tria
15	When Should Environmental Awareness Be a Policy Goal?	305
	Karen Akerlof
16	Experimental Assessment of the Emergence of Awareness and Its Influence on Behavioral Changes: The Everaware Lesson	337
	Pietro Gravino, Alina Sîrbu, Martin Becker, Vito D.P. Servedio, and Vittorio Loreto

17	Opinion Dynamics: Models, Extensions and External Effects	363
	Alina Sirbu, Vittorio Loreto, Vito D.P. Servedio, and Francesca Tria
18	Final Considerations	403
	Vittorio Loreto and Francesca Tria
