

Contents

1 Law, Public Policy, and Sex Work in North America and China	1
Legal and Public Policy Responses to Sex Work Cross-Culturally.....	1
Unintended Consequences? The Impacts of Criminalizing Prostitution.....	3
Systematic Collusion Within Exclusionary Regimes	5
Ethnographic Context and Methodology	7
Case Study One: China	7
Case Study Two: Canada	12
Case Study Three: The United States	17
Concise Summary Overview of Chapters and Key Arguments.....	23
References.....	23
2 Systematic Collusion: Criminalization’s Health and Safety Consequences	27
The Impact of Sex Work’s Legal Status on Health and Safety	27
Case Study One: China	30
A Violent Working Environment	30
An Exploitative Environment	32
Group Disaffiliation	33
Health Risks	34
Case Study Two: Canada	35
The Impact of Drug User Identity on Health	36
The Impact of Sex Worker Identity on Safety	38
Case Study Three: The United States	40
Restricted Police Aid and Reporting.....	41
Disrupted Peer Solidarity	42
Limited Information Sharing with Healthcare Providers and Peers	43
Health Diagnosis in Crisis Contexts and the Criminalization of HIV Status	45
Discussion	46
References.....	48

3 Negotiating Systematic Collusion: Autonomy, Citizenship, and Resistance 51

Sex Workers’ Negotiations of the Exclusionary Regime 51

Case Study One: China 54

 Protection Networks..... 54

 Temporary Alliances 55

 Contractual Relationships with Regular Clients 57

 Urban Citizenship 58

Case Study Two: Canada 59

 Trying to Engage: Conformity and Avoidance 60

 Street-Based Strategies 62

Case Study Three: The United States 64

 Extrajudicial Problem-Solving and Selective Enlistment of Police Aid 65

 Working Independently..... 66

 Work-Related Interpersonal Tool Kit..... 67

 Healthcare during Incarceration or Court-Mandated Addiction Treatment 68

Discussion 70

References..... 71

4 Researchers’ Negotiations of Systematic Collusion 75

Ethical Issues in Sex Work Research..... 75

Case Study One: China 78

 Negotiating Suspicion..... 78

 Negotiating Violence and Police Raids..... 80

 Negotiating Stigma and Marginalization 81

 Negotiating with Scholars in the Academic Field..... 81

Case Study Two: Canada 83

 Karma’s a Bitch: Negotiating with Regional Radicals 83

 The Sex Work “Plan”: Negotiating with City Folks 86

 Good Help Is Hard to Give 88

Case Study Three: The United States 88

 Living in Ideals or Living in the World: Taking Sides..... 90

 “Expert Testimony”..... 92

Discussion and Concluding Thoughts..... 94

References..... 95

Index..... 97

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-25761-7>

Sex Workers and Criminalization in North America and China

Ethical and Legal Issues in Exclusionary Regimes

Dewey, S.; Zheng, T.; Orchard, T.

2016, XI, 99 p. 1 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-25761-7