Contents

1 The Clinical Dimension: Causes, Treatments, and Outcomes of Preterm Birth ........................................ 1
1.1 Recognizing and Counting Preterm Births ....................... 2
1.2 Biological Pathways for Preterm Birth .......................... 9
  1.2.1 Spontaneous Preterm Births ............................... 10
  1.2.2 Interventional Preterm Births ............................ 12
1.3 Therapeutic Evidence on the Causes of Preterm Birth .......... 15
  1.3.1 Prenatal Care ............................................. 15
  1.3.2 Treatment of Infections ................................... 17
  1.3.3 Tocolytics ............................................... 18
  1.3.4 Bed Rest ............................................... 18
  1.3.5 Stress Reduction ........................................ 19
  1.3.6 Cerclage ............................................... 19
  1.3.7 Third Trimester Progesterone Treatment ................. 20
1.4 Outcomes of Preterm Birth ....................................... 21
  1.4.1 Infant Mortality ......................................... 21
  1.4.2 Short- and Long-Term Morbidities
      for Preterm Newborns ..................................... 23
  1.4.3 Maternal Health and Family Outcomes ................... 28
1.5 Alternative Paradigms of Preterm Birth ......................... 29
1.6 Comparisons with Canada, Great Britain, and Western Europe 32
  1.6.1 Differences in the Maternity Population ................. 33
  1.6.2 Differences in the Preterm Newborn Population .......... 35
References ..................................................................... 36

2 The Population Dimension: The Distribution of Preterm Births . . . 43
2.1 Studying the Distribution Patterns of Health Problems ........ 44
2.2 Preterm Birth and Features of Pregnancy ....................... 50
  2.2.1 Prior Preterm Birth ..................................... 50
  2.2.2 Multiple Births .......................................... 51
  2.2.3 Maternal Age ............................................ 52
The Political Dimension: Solving the Preterm Birth Problem

4.1 Preterm Births and the Politics of Fertility Control
   - Preterm Birth and Support for Contraception
   - Preterm Birth and Opposition to Abortion
   - The Impact of Fertility Control Policies on Preterm Births

4.2 Preterm Births and the Politics of Poverty
   - Baby-Saving and the Establishment of Social Welfare Systems
   - Poverty and Infant Mortality in an Affluent Society
   - Infant Health and Universal Health Insurance
   - The Impact of Poverty-Related Policies on Preterm Births

4.3 Preterm Births and the Politics of Race
   - Race and Fertility Control
   - Racial Disparities and Poverty
   - Racial Disparities and Civil Rights
   - The Impact of Race-Related Policies on Preterm Births

4.4 Comparisons with Canada, Great Britain, and Western Europe
   - Fertility Control
   - Addressing Poverty
   - Addressing Racial or Ethnic Inequities

The Health Care Dimension: Delivering Care for High-Risk Pregnant Women and Preterm Infants

5.1 The Content of Prenatal Care for High-Risk Pregnancies
   - The Impact of Provider Competition
   - The Urge to Action
   - Commercial Interests

5.2 Rescuing Preterm Newborns
   - History of Preterm Neonatal Care
   - The Resuscitation Decision

5.3 The Organization and Financing of Perinatal Care
   - Practice Models in Obstetrics
   - Toward Perinatal Regionalization
   - Away from Perinatal Regionalization
   - Expenditures on Preterm Birth

5.4 High-Risk Pregnant Women’s Experiences with Medical Care
   - Personal Responsibility for High-Risk Pregnancy
   - Exemption from Social Obligations
   - Obligations to Try to Get Well and to Seek and Adhere to Treatment
5.5 The Experience of Parents of Preterm Infants ........................................ 239
  5.5.1 Parental Participation in the Decision to Resuscitate at Delivery ............. 239
  5.5.2 Parental Experiences of Infants in NICUs ........................................ 242
  5.5.3 Parental Experiences After NICU Discharge .................................... 246
5.6 Comparisons with Canada, Great Britain, and Western Europe ............... 248
  5.6.1 Public Financing and Ownership .................................................. 249
  5.6.2 Organization of Maternity Care .................................................. 250
  5.6.3 Impact of Maternity Systems on Care for High-Risk Pregnancies and Preterm Infants ................................................................. 252
References ........................................................................................................ 254

6 The Ethical Dimension: Moral Decision-Making About Preterm Birth ............ 265
  6.1 Ethical Decisions in High-Risk Pregnancies ........................................ 267
    6.1.1 Multiple Embryo Transfers in In Vitro Fertilization ....................... 268
    6.1.2 Prenatal Screening ........................................................................ 272
    6.1.3 Interventions for High-Risk Pregnancies .................................... 281
  6.2 Ethical Decisions in Delivery and Treatment of Preterm Infants ................ 289
    6.2.1 Clinical Approaches to Defining Futility .................................... 292
    6.2.2 Parental Involvement .................................................................... 295
    6.2.3 Third-Party Views ........................................................................ 300
  6.3 Comparisons with Canada, Great Britain, and Western Europe ............... 303
    6.3.1 Assisted Reproduction .................................................................. 304
    6.3.2 The Right to Refuse Screening and Treatment ............................... 306
    6.3.3 Substance Use During Pregnancy .............................................. 307
    6.3.4 Withholding and Withdrawing Neonatal Intensive Care .................. 310
References ........................................................................................................ 313

Epilogue ........................................................................................................ 323

Index ................................................................................................................ 331
Preterm Birth in the United States
A Sociocultural Approach
Bronstein, J.M.
2016, XXIV, 337 p. 4 illus., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-32713-6