

Contents

1 Introduction	1
Sebastian Văduva and Andrew R. Thomas
2 Defining the Term Integrity	5
Victor T. Alistar
3 Activities and Risk Areas that Discredit Integrity	7
Victor T. Alistar
3.1 Corruption	7
3.2 Conflicts of Interests	9
3.3 Public Procurement Process	10
3.4 Lobbying	10
3.5 Political Parties' Financing/Public Donations	11
3.6 Facilitating Payments	12
3.7 Gifts and Donations	13
3.8 Discrimination	13
3.9 Favoritism, Nepotism, and Political Favoritism	14
4 Domains Where Business Integrity Matters	15
Ioan S. Fotea and Daniel S. Neagoie
4.1 Internal Financial/Administrative Activities Within the Organization (Internal Integrity)	17
4.1.1 Building Trust with Key Financial Stakeholders	18
4.1.2 Ensuring Integrity Through Internal Control Systems	18
4.2 Integrity in the Relationships with Suppliers	19
4.2.1 Building Relationships Based on Trust with Suppliers, Through Integrity	20
4.2.2 Ensuring Suppliers' Integrity	20
4.2.3 Supply Ethics	21
4.3 Integrity in Work Relationships	21
4.3.1 The Key Role of Employees in Building Integrity in the Business Environment	22
4.3.2 Fair Treatment and Procedures	22

4.3.3	Employees' Participation and Involvement	24
4.3.4	Employee Privacy	25
4.3.5	Freedom of Expression and Conscience	26
4.3.6	General Presentation	26
4.4	Integrity in Recruiting Workforce	27
4.5	Integrity in the Relationship with the Clients	27
4.5.1	The Importance of Integrity in Business–Client Relationships	28
4.5.2	Ethical Practices in Marketing Strategy	28
4.5.3	Integrity in the Product Area	29
4.5.4	Marketing, Communication and Publicity Practices	29
4.5.5	Integrity in Pricing	30
4.6	Integrity in the Relationship with the Government and Public Officials	31
4.6.1	The Democratic Legitimacy of the State	31
4.6.2	The Government's Role	32
4.6.3	The Importance of Integrity in the Business-Government Relationship	32
4.6.4	Social Capital	33
4.7	Integrity in Partnerships	34
4.7.1	The Increasing Importance of Partnerships in the Business Environment	35
4.7.2	Integrity as a Fundamental Component for Cultivating Trust Within Partnerships	36
5	The European Normative Framework for Business Ethics	39
	Sebastian Văduva and Călin D. Lupișu
5.1	The EU Legislation	40
5.1.1	Community Acquis	40
5.1.2	Competition Law	41
5.1.3	Company Law in Europe	42
5.1.4	Environment Law	44
5.1.5	Consumer Protection Law	46
5.1.6	Labor Law	48
5.1.7	Anticorruption Legislation in the EU	49
5.1.8	Legislation on Public Procurement	51
5.1.9	Legal Instruments Which Target Lobbying	52
6	Developing Practice Codes for Integrity in Business	55
	Victor T. Alistar and Daniel S. Neagoie
6.1	The Content of such Practice Codes	59
6.1.1	The Content of Value Statements and Corporate Principles	60
6.1.2	The Content of Ethical Codes	60
6.2	Communicating Practice Codes to the Personnel and Stakeholders	62
6.2.1	The Management's Role in Communicating the Code	62

7 Practice Codes for Integrity in Business—Case Studies	67
Adrian F. Cioară
7.1 Starbuck Standard’s Business Conduct	67
7.2 The Nike, Inc. Conduct Code.	69
7.3 The PSEG Standards on Business Integrity	70
8 Corporate Social Responsibility—From Concept to Business Strategy	73
Sebastian Văduva and Daniel S. Neagoie
8.1 The Government as a Facilitator	76
8.1.1 The European Standards and Guidelines	76
8.1.2 Promoting CSR in the European Member States	77
8.2 Case Study: Sweden	81
8.2.1 The Understanding of CSR	81
8.2.2 National Strategies	81
8.2.3 Visibility	82
8.2.4 Transparency and Reporting.	82
8.2.5 The Financial Sector.	83
8.2.6 The Public Procurement Process	83
8.2.7 CSR and SMEs.	84
8.2.8 The Activities of Companies Outside State Borders	84
8.3 Case Study: Great Britain.	85
8.3.1 The Understanding of CSR	85
8.3.2 National Strategies	86
8.3.3 A CSR Source: Great Britain’s Department of Trade and Industry	86
8.3.4 The Activities of the Other Ministers.	86
8.3.5 Compulsory Report	87
8.3.6 Visibility	87
8.3.7 Transparency and Reporting.	88
8.3.8 The Financial Sector.	88
8.3.9 Public Procurement	89
8.3.10 Business Activities Outside Great Britain	89
8.4 Case Study: France.	89
8.4.1 The Understanding of CSR in France	90
8.4.2 The National Strategy.	90
8.4.3 Visibility	91
8.4.4 Transparency and Reporting.	91
8.4.5 Criticisms for the System’s Efficiency in General	92
8.4.6 The Financial Sector.	92
8.4.7 Public Procurement	93
8.4.8 The Activities of Companies Outside France’s Borders	93
8.5 Solutions for Implementing CSR Strategies	94
8.5.1 Conduct Codes for CSR	94
8.5.2 Suggestion of Models for the Corporate Conduct Codes.	94
8.5.3 The Content of Conduct Codes for CSR	95

8.5.4	Implementing Conduct Codes	96
8.5.5	Monitoring Progress	97
8.5.6	Responsible Accounting for Society and Environment	97
9	Models of Good Practices	99
	Călin D. Lupițu and Adrian F. Cioară
9.1	Case Study: Anglo-American PLC	99
9.1.1	CSR Vision	100
9.1.2	Strategic Orientation	100
9.1.3	CSR Initiatives	101
9.1.4	Independent Evaluation	103
9.2	Case Study: Danone S.A.	104
9.2.1	CSR Vision	105
9.2.2	Strategic Orientation	105
9.2.3	CSR Initiatives	106
9.2.4	Independent Evaluation	109
9.3	Case Study: Bayer	110
9.3.1	CSR Vision	110
9.3.2	Strategic Orientation	111
9.3.3	CSR Initiatives	111
9.3.4	Independent Evaluations	114
9.4	Case Study: Santander	116
9.4.1	CSR Vision	117
9.4.2	Strategic Orientation	117
9.4.3	CSR Initiatives	118
9.4.4	Independent Evaluations	120
	Conclusions	123
	Recommendations	125
	References	127

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-33842-2>

Integrity in the Business Panorama

Models of European Best-Practices

Văduva, S.A.; Alistar, V.T.; Thomas, A.R.; Fotea, I.Ș.;

Lupițu, C.D.; Neagoie, D.S.; Cioară, A.F.

2016, VIII, 128 p., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-33842-2