

Contents

1	The Imageless City. An Aural Approach to Locative Media and Informal Settlements	1
1.1	The Experimental Extent of a Map	1
1.2	A Topographic Bond: Houses and Routes in Informal Settlements	3
1.3	The Notion of Agogic to Evaluate Performance for Spatial Configuration	4
1.4	Tonal Transcripts	5
1.5	Investigating Informality in Dar es Salaam Irregular Settlements	6
1.6	The Field of Action	7
1.7	Informal Settlements in Dar es Salaam. Taxonomy and History	12
1.8	Accessibility and Orientation: Emerging Suburban Issues	16
	References	17
2	From Territorial Surveys to Mental Mapping. The Recognition of the Anthropological Image	19
2.1	The Notion of Anthropological Image	19
2.2	Prehistorical Settlements	20
2.3	The Configuration of the Swahili Settlement	23
2.4	Artistic Practice as an Asset. The Tingatinga Art Movement	24
2.5	The Batik Painting Technique	25
2.6	Musical Composition. The Muziki Wa Dansi	26
	References	26
3	Urban Samples. The Reconstruction of the Settlement Model	29
3.1	Sustainable Settlement Models in Urban-Rural Metropolitan Scenarios	29
3.2	An Exemplary Metropolitan Section: The Informal District of Yombo Vituka in Dar es Salaam	31

- 3.3 The Mental Image of an Informal Settlement: Centralities, Enclaves, Landmarks, Paths, Densities 32
- 3.4 Anthropological Images and the Reconstruction of the Settlement Model: Courtyards, Squares, Backyards, Shores, Paths 39
- Reference 42
- 4 Agogic Maps. A Topography of Sound Signals for Spatial Orientation and Configuration 45
 - 4.1 The Notion of Agogic and Its Relevance to Space-Time Design 45
 - 4.2 The Pace of Inhabitation. Applying Agogics to the Anthropological Image of the Place 46
 - 4.3 Geoscore. A Prototype for an Agogic Map in Dar es Salaam 47
 - 4.4 The Green-Grey Series 47
 - 4.5 Accessibility Map 49
 - 4.6 A Chronographic Rendition of the Variations of the Model 50
 - 4.7 Sense-making Through Agogic Maps: An Aural Revolution 52
 - 4.8 Spectralism and Spatial Variance 54
 - 4.9 Provisional Conclusions 57
 - References. 57
- Bibliography 59

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-48304-7>

Agogic Maps
From Musical Phrasing to Enhancement of Urban Spaces

Pe, R.

2017, XVI, 66 p. 27 illus., Softcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-48304-7