

Contents

1	An Introduction to the Value of Shame—Exploring a Health Resource in Cultural Contexts	1
	Elisabeth Vanderheiden and Claude-Hélène Mayer
Part I Theoretical Perspectives on Shame and Culture
2	Shame! A System Psychodynamic Perspective	43
	Michelle May
3	Shame as a Functional and Adaptive Emotion: A Biopsychosocial Perspective	61
	Markus van Alphen
4	The Positive Function of Shame: Moral and Spiritual Perspectives	87
	Thomas Ryan
Part II Culture-Specific Perspectives on Shame
5	lajjA in Indian Psychology: Spiritual, Social, and Literary Perspectives	109
	Dharm P.S. Bhawuk
6	“Dream on—There is no Salvation!”: Transforming Shame in the South African Workplace Through Personal and Organisational Strategies	135
	Claude-Hélène Mayer and Louise Tonelli
7	Canada/North America: Shame Between Indigenous Nature-Connectedness, Colonialism and Cultural Disconnection	157
	Barbara Buch

8	Indigenous Australians: Shame and Respect	187
	Sharon Louth
9	Shame and Resilience: A New Zealand Based Exploration of Resilient Responses to Shame	201
	Samantha Brennan, Neville Robertson and Cate Curtis
10	From Shame to Guilt: The Remediation of Bullying Across Cultures and the US	223
	Rebecca S. Merkin
Part III The Application of Shame and Culture in Therapeutic and Counseling Practices
11	Shame and Psychotherapy: Theory, Method and Practice	251
	Mrigaya Sinha
12	Shame—“A Soul Feeding Emotion”: Archetypal Work and the Transformation of the Shadow of Shame in a Group Development Process	277
	Claude-Hélène Mayer

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-53099-4>

The Value of Shame

Exploring a Health Resource in Cultural Contexts

Vanderheiden, E.; Mayer, C.-H. (Eds.)

2017, XVII, 302 p. 15 illus., 2 illus. in color., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-53099-4