

Contents

1	The History, Status and Future of the Community Indicators Movement	1
	Lyle Wray, Chantal Stevens and Meg Holden
Part I Organizing Concepts and Collaboration in Community Indicators
2	The Role of Subjective Well-Being as an Organizing Concept for Community Indicators	19
	Christopher Barrington-Leigh
3	Community Indicators and the Collective Goods Criterion for Impact	35
	Frank Ridzi
4	Collaboration to Promote Use of Community Indicators: Communication Is Key	53
	Craig Helmstetter, Paul Mattessich, Ruth Hamberg and Nancy Hartzler
5	Aligning Local and Regional Data to Achieve a More Inclusive Economy: A Northeast Ohio Model	69
	Emily Garr Pacetti
6	Getting to Groundbreaking, but not Build Out: From Formation to Failure in a Regional Housing Indicators Collaborative	87
	Meg Holden

Part II Community Indicators Identifying Different Types of Disadvantage

7 Environmental Justice in Australia: Measuring the Relationship Between Industrial Odour Exposure and Community Disadvantage 113
Lucy Dubrelle Gunn, Billy Greenham, Melanie Davern, Suzanne Mavoia, Elizabeth Jean Taylor and Mark Bannister

8 Addressing Disparities and Improving the System of Care for Veterans Through the Community Assessment Process 135
Samantha Green and Melanie Espino

9 Economic Issues for Women in Texas 149
Jennifer Lee and Frances Deviney

10 Comprehensive Sustainability Indicators: The Houston Sustainability Indicators Program 167
Lester O. King

<http://www.springer.com/978-3-319-54617-9>

Community Quality-of-Life Indicators: Best Cases VII

Holden, M.; Phillips, R.; Stevens, C. (Eds.)

2017, VIII, 184 p. 47 illus., Hardcover

ISBN: 978-3-319-54617-9