Contents

Part I  Food Justice in a Global Context

1. A Vignette from FoodBlessed ............................... 3
   Rebecca L. Farnum and Maya Terro

2. Introduction to Food Justice in a Global Context ................................. 7
   William D. Schanbacher

3. Edible Justice: Between Food Justice and the Culinary Imaginary ................................. 13
   David J. Leichter

4. Building Community Capacity for Food and Agricultural Justice: Lessons from the Cuban Permaculture Movement ................................. 31
   Justine MacKesson Williams

5. It’s Not Just About Us: Food as a Mechanism for Environmental and Social Justice in Mato Grosso, Brazil ................................. 51
   Marisela A. Chávez

6. Save the Whale? Ecological Memory and the Human-Whale Bond in Japan’s Small Coastal Villages ................................. 67
   Seven Mattes

Part II  Food Justice and the Built Environment

7. A Vignette from Our Kitchen Table ............................... 85
   Lisa Oliver King

8. Introduction to Food Justice and the Built Environment ................................. 89
   Shane Epting

9. Food Sovereignty in the City: Challenging Historical Barriers to Food Justice ................................. 95
   Samantha E. Noll
| 10 | Race, Religion, and Justice: From Privilege to Solidarity in the Mid-South Food Movement | 113 |
| 11 | Views from the Classroom: Teachers on Food in a Low-Income Urban School District | 129 |
| 12 | Healthy Food on Wheels: An Exploration of Mobile Produce Markets Through a Food Justice Lens | 141 |

Part III Food Justice and Governance

| 13 | A Vignette from Our Table Cooperative | 161 |
| 14 | Introduction to Food Justice and Governance | 165 |
| 15 | The National Gleaning Project: The Importance of Gleaning and Fresh Food Recovery in a Sustainable and Just Food System | 171 |
| 16 | Food, Crime, Justice and Security: (Food) Security for Whom? | 185 |
| 17 | Fence Posts to Blog Posts: An Exploration of the Classroom in Experiential Food Systems Education | 201 |
| 18 | Institutions and Solidarity: Wild Rice Research, Relationships, and the Commodification of Knowledge | 219 |

Part IV Food Justice and Animal Lives

| 19 | A Vignette from Michigan State University’s Student Organic Farm | 237 |
| 20 | Introduction to Food Justice and Animal Lives | 241 |
| 21 | Farm Forward: A Pragmatist Approach to Advocacy in Agriculture | 247 |
22 Agriculture, Equality, and the Problem of Incorporation ........ 267
   Anne Portman

23 Religious Slaughter in Europe: Balancing Animal Welfare and Religious Freedom in a Liberal Democracy ............... 285
   R.W. Mittendorf

24 An Ecophenomenological Approach to Hunting, Animal Studies, and Food Justice ............................................ 299
   Jonathan McConnell

Conclusion: Fish, Fowl, and Food Justice .......................... 313

References .......................................................... 319
Food Justice in US and Global Contexts
Bringing Theory and Practice Together
Werkheiser, I.; Piso, Z. (Eds.)
2017, XX, 319 p., Hardcover
ISBN: 978-3-319-57173-7